

(Associated Press)
NEW YORK, June 11—Cotton futures opened steady. July 22:78; October 22:43; December 22:63; January 22:23; March 22:45.

(Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 11—Alabama: Generally fair to night and Friday except probable showers near the coast.

ALBANY-DECATUR DAILY

DEVOTED TO THE INTERESTS AND UPBUILDING OF ALBANY-DECATUR, ALABAMA

VOLUME XIII

ALBANY, ALABAMA, THURSDAY, JUNE 11, 1925

NUMBER 90

TWIN CITIES WELCOME THE VALLEY KIWANIANS

FIGURATIVE GOATS REPLACE MONKEYS IN VISIT OF SCOPES

Tennessee Teacher Is Not Offended At
"Being the Goat"

PROFESSOR TO GO HOME THURSDAY

Believes Trial Will Be
Night For Freedom
Of Thought

(Associated Press)

NEW YORK, June 11—Figurative goats, instead of monkeys, have figured largely in the closing hours of the New York visit of John T. Scopes, high school teacher, who goes on trial next month at Dayton, Tenn., for violating the state law against the teaching of evolution.

In an address last night to the New York sympathizers Scopes told of his pleasure at being the "goat" in a fight for freedom of thought.

Meanwhile Dudley F. Malone, New York lawyer who had been delegated to assist by research work, announced he would not be a goat, that he would assist actively in the case not at all, so he was accepted as active counsel.

Scopes, who leaves for home today as a guest at the dinner of the civic club last night. He said he was embarrassed in addressing the distinguished group of liberals and radicals because he was "young and inexperienced" and secondly that because while an automobile had been sent to get Clarence Darrow, one of his counsel, he had to walk to the club and "got lost."

Being a goat is not "so unpleasant" he said. "If you are going to be a goat, you should take the thought whether you are to be a big goat or little one. I really think this is a fight for freedom of thought. The trial is not to judge whether I am a criminal."

As to sidelights of his New York visit, Scopes said: "I found New Yorkers the most lovable people in the country, with the most greedy hotels and restaurants and the most selfish people, those reporters who wanted to monopolize all my time, not even to let me see the Follies."

If Scopes did not go to the Follies, he did find amusement in another theater in a skit forecasting the coming evolution trial.

There were three characters, William Jennings Bryan, as prosecutor, Scopes and a monkey as witnesses.

John Randolph Neal, chief counsel for Scopes, who announced a revision in counsel, plans that it will be as follows.

Clarence Darrow, Bainbridge Colby, Dudley F. Malone, Arthur G. Hayes, eastern manager of the LaFollette campaign last fall, and Charles W. Thomas, former senator from Colorado.

Water Contests At Pool Tonight

The aquatic contests, scheduled to have been conducted at the swimming pool at Malone Park several nights ago and postponed on account of the inclement weather, will be conducted this evening and Manager Gillam is anticipating a large crowd.

"We are making every effort," the management announced today, "to operate a clean, wholesome amusement institution and in this endeavor we hope to have the whole-hearted co-operation of the public."

MANY CASES TRIED

Files in the Albany police court this morning again went over the $100 mark. One defendant was fined $50 and cost on a drunk and disorderly charge including a charge of having drawn another youth into the swimming pool with the latter's clothes on, the defendant was fined on two charges, one of drunkenness and one having liquor in his possession. A

Values Wife

MRS. WILBUR LOCUTUS

So great was the love of Wilbur Locutus, of St. Charles, Fla., for Mrs. Locutus (above) that he applied to a court and received an injunction restraining other men from making love to her. The step succeeded so well he then asked that the temporary writ be made permanent.

WOODSMAN FREED OF MURDER CHARGE

Death of Woman In Lonely Cabin Still Is Unsolved

(Associated Press)

BAUDRETT, Minn., June 11—After six months in jail, Tony Reamer, northwoods chopper, was free today, to return to the woods that had been his home for several years, exonerated by a Lake of the Woods county grand jury of any connection with the death last fall of Mrs. Dean Wheeler.

The decision of the grand jury last night left unsolved the death of Mrs. Wheeler, whose body was found with a knife plunged through her side, lying on the floor of the cabin where she and her husband, homesteaders, made their home, two weeks after her last fall of Mrs. Dean Wheeler.

Found dead last November, a courier brought word of the tragedy to the nearest outpost. A coroner's jury ploughed through the snow next day and upon arriving at the cabin, examined the body, and returned a verdict of accidental death. It was the theory of the jury that Mrs. Wheeler while preparing the evening meal, stumbled accidentally on a butcher knife and died before her husband returned from a nearby river, where he had gone to look after a boat.

Albany Council To Meet Friday

The Albany city council will meet in special session Friday evening, it was announced today. Several ordinances are expected to be considered by the aldermen in the Friday evening session. The council met last Friday night, but was unable to complete the immense amount of business before it.

Welcome Kiwanians!

Albany and Decatur are honored today by your presence. On behalf of the citizens of the Twin Cities, the Albany-Decatur Daily bids you thrice welcome.

May your visit to these cities be pleasant, profitable and entertaining. The inter-city gatherings of Kiwanis clubs is a splendid movement. Out of these meetings will come a better understanding of mutual inter-dependence and from these gatherings, the Daily believes, there will come also a spirit of mutual helpfulness.

"We build" is your club motto. The Daily, on behalf of the citizens of this community, accords you a cordial welcome—you who build—morally and commercially!

Values Wife

POWER PETITIONS WILL BE HEARD IN TUSCUMBIA JULY 10

Date And Place Of The Hearings Changed By Commission

ONE DAM IN TWO STATES SOUGHT

Jurisdiction Question
To Be Cleared Up
Soon Is Belief

Petitions of the Mississippi Power company and the Muscle Shoals Hydro-Electric company for permission to develop power sites on the Tennessee river, below the present Muscle Shoals development, have been set for hearing at the courthouse in Tuscumbia on July 10.

The petitions were set late Wednesday by the Alabama Public Service Commission, with which the applications had been filed. Originally the petitions had been set for hearing on July 6, in Montgomery, but at the request of residents of the Tri-Cities the date and place for the hearings were changed.

Two Sites Involved

Two sites are involved in the petitions now pending. The Mississippi Power company desires permission to erect a dam near the Mississippi-Alabama state line. It is understood that one end of the dam would be in Alabama, Colbert County and the other end in Mississippi, Tishomingo, County.

Just what extend this feature would have in the matter of utility commission jurisdiction has not been cleared up.

The Muscle Shoals Hydro-Electric company seeks permission to construct a dam at Colbert Shoals, about eight miles below Muscle Shoals.

Mrs. Wilkinson Dies In Memphis Hospital

Funeral services will be held Friday morning for Mrs. Warren G. Wilkinson, whose body was found with a knife plunged through her side, lying on the floor of the cabin where she and her husband, homesteaders, made their home, two weeks after her last fall of Mrs. Dean Wheeler.

The decision of the grand jury last night left unsolved the death of Mrs. Wheeler, whose body was found with a knife plunged through her side, lying on the floor of the cabin where she and her husband, homesteaders, made their home, two weeks after her last fall of Mrs. Dean Wheeler.

Found dead last November, a courier brought word of the tragedy to the nearest outpost. A coroner's jury ploughed through the snow next day and upon arriving at the cabin, examined the body, and returned a verdict of accidental death. It was the theory of the jury that Mrs. Wheeler while preparing the evening meal, stumbled accidentally on a butcher knife and died before her husband returned from a nearby river, where he had gone to look after a boat.

Mrs. Wilkinson is most pleasantly remembered locally as Margaret Ann Curry the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Curry who left some years ago to make her home in Memphis, Tenn.

The deceased is survived by her husband, two children, Curry and Warren, Jr., her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Curry and one brother, W. M. Curry, N. S. N.

Splinter Causes Blood Poisoning

Alvis Britain, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Britain, of Ryans Cross Roads, was brought here today to receive medical treatment for blood poisoning, which followed a wound caused by a splinter at the youth's home several days ago.

TROOPS MOBILIZED TO KEEP ORDER AT OKLAHOMA MINES

Quiet Prevails After A Clash Last Night Between Factions

MAN IS REPORTED SEVERELY BEATEN

Chief Of Police States
Situation Now Is
"Well In Hand"

(Associated Press)

HENRYETTA, Okla., June 11—Quiet prevailed here today through the mining district. A clash between miners last night caused some excitement and prompted Colonel Head, commander of the guardsmen on duty here to order the mobilization of additional guards. This action is thought to be precautionary.

Andy Meitus, a non-union miner, was reported to have been severely injured last night when attacked by fifteen union miners. Meitus it is said had promised to go to work in the Crew mine at the 1917 wage scale.

OKMULGEE, Okla., June 11—Company E of the national guard unit was mobilizing at 1:30 o'clock this morning to go to Henryetta, to assist in quelling a disturbance of union miners.

Chief of Police Stormant, of Henryetta, said over the phone that he had arrested five men following the attack on Meitus.

The men saw Meitus carrying pick-handles and equipment and decided he was going to work in the mine and attacked him. The guardsmen are necessary. We are able to handle the situation. As soon as the soldiers leave things may break out again."

Colonel Head said he had ordered guard units from Eufaula and other towns.

Strikers Fired On

SIDNEY, Nova Scotia, June 11—Police today fired upon a mob of strikers attempting to enter the powerhouse at New Waterford, operating as an auxiliary of the British Empire Steel Corporation. Four of the attackers were said to have been wounded.

Help Asked

GRACE BAY, Nova Scotia, June 11—A report from New Waterford today said, after a mass meeting, a number of mine workers had marched in a body to the power station there and that the authorities had called for assistance from the nearby towns.

ROADS SEARCHED FOR MISSING MAN

Another Victim May Be Added to List of Dead In Rum Warfare

(Associated Press)

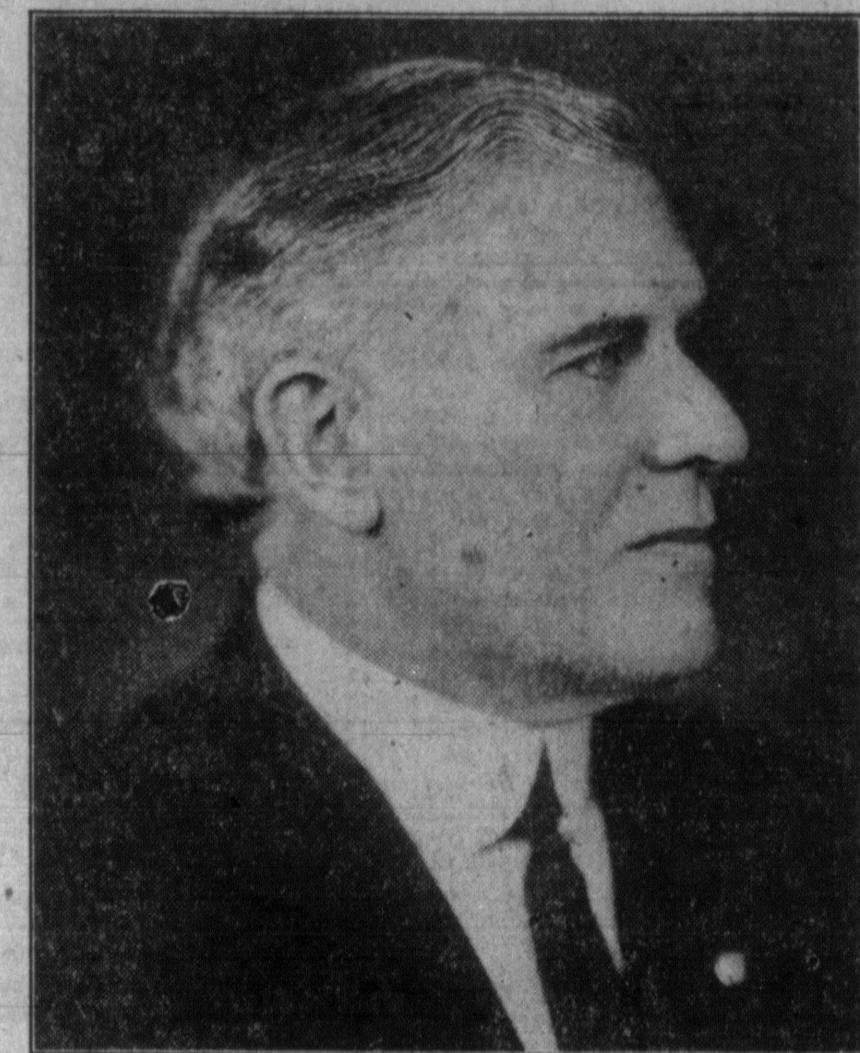

CHICAGO, June 11—Fearing the renewal of the beer running rivalry between Chicago gangsters may have claimed another victim, city and county police officers today continued search of roads south of the city for Morris Dunn, brother of Davy Dunn, the reputed successor to Terry Druggan, as leader of the Westside Valley gang.

Morris Dunn was kidnapped from his home early yesterday by three men, representing themselves as policemen. They said they were looking for Davy. The kidnappers put Dunn in a curtained car and drove away and when, after several hours, he did not return, Mrs. Dunn notified the police.

She expressed fear he had been slain. Dunn, an ice man, had no enemies, his wife said.

Meanwhile county authorities continued their inquiry into the Evergreen park affray of Sunday, when Walter O'Donnell, beer runner, was fatally wounded and Henry Kassmiller, Eastern gangster was killed outright.

INTERNATIONAL TRUSTEE WILL ADDRESS INTER-CITY MEETING

DR. BURTON D. MYERS

Dr. Myers will address the Kiwanis banquet at the Albany high school auditorium tonight. Dr. Myers is one of the international club's notables, being named as an international trustee for a two-year period. Morgan club officials feel very fortunate in obtaining Dr. Myers upon the occasion of the North Alabama district Kiwanis meeting.

AMERICAN BOAT IS FIRED ON IN CHINA

Marines Are Landed To Protect Christian College Today

(Associated Press)

No casualties were reported.

HONG KONG, June 11—United States marines have been landed on Honan island, near Canton, to protect the American Christian college.

CANTON, June 11—The American gunboat Pam Panga of the South China patrol, was fired upon near Whampoa today, while convoying a supply launch to the Canton Christian college.

The Pam Panga returned the fire.

THAW REAPPEARS IN BROADWAY CAFE

Traffic Jammed When Curious People Seek Look at Visitor

(Associated Press)

NEW YORK, June 11—Traffic was jammed this morning, when Harry K. Thaw, who came back to Broadway last night, after a week's absence in Virginia, emerged from a cabaret.

He spent the evening and early morning there, doing nothing much but responding to welcomes by Rialto belles and sipping ice water and orangeade.

Several hundred curious persons crowded to the doors to see him. He seemed startled and fled to a taxi cab. Curious folks pursued him through Central Park, then left him alone when he returned to the cabaret.

His bill for the evening, which included a $2.00 dinner for himself and two male companions, amounted to $35. Of this amount $5 was a tip to the head waiter, $3 to the cabaret waiter and $1 to the hat checker.

A bevy of chorus girls, amused him during the evening and he was introduced to all who took part in the review. He told one girl she reminded him of Lillian Russell.

He declined to dance as he said he had not kept up with the modern steps. Even an old fashioned waltz, played for his benefit failed to shake his determination to stay off the floor. He said today that he would stay in New York until he had seen all the cabarets.

Patterson Sent Here To Represent Montgomery Club

Benson.

Honorable A. G. Patterson said today that this is the first time he was ever sent from home to represent his home at home. Mr. Patterson is in the cities today as a representative of the Montgomery Kiwanis Club at the Albany-Decatur inter-city Kiwanis meeting.

The Public Service executive is a former resident of Albany-Decatur and has represented these cities upon many occasions. He declared that never before had he been in his home cities as a representative of another city but that he was glad to again have the opportunity of talking with old friends.

At five o'clock they will join the Kiwanians for an automobile trip over the cities.

6:30 A picnic supper will be served at the Valley County Club.

8, Musical Program.
10 p. m. Music.

Visiting ladies will register at the Lyons Hotel and will be entertained there by the ladies of the Morgan Kiwanis club.

Entertainment Features for Ladies

Round table discussions. Erskine

R. Ramsey, Leader. Lieutenant-Governor, Alabama Kiwanis District.

Address—Kiwanis Activities, H. F.

Williamson, Governor Alabama Kiwanis District.

Recess.

Seven P. M. Albany High school auditorium, Toastmaster, C. W. Matthews.

America, Assemblage.

Invocation, Jim Wallace, D. D.

Morgan Kiwanis Club.

Banquet—During the banquet various musical numbers will be presented by the entertainment

Josselyn's Wife

By Kathleen Norris

Illustrations by Irwin Myers

Copyright by Kathleen Norris

SYNOPSIS

CHAPTER I.—Ellen and Joe Latimer, orphans, without means, make their home with their Aunt Elsie at a Washington, small New York town. Ellen is studying art, her expenses being paid by Mrs. Sewall Rose, girlhood friend of her mother. Mrs. Rose invites Ellen to a Thanksgiving house-party, and the girl is delighted.

CHAPTER II.—On the way from the station to Mrs. Rose's Ellen rides with a very attractive young woman and a much older man. She takes them for father and daughter, but they are introduced as Mr. and Mrs. Josselyn. Ellen does not "fit in" with the younger members of the party, and is miserable.

CHAPTER III.—Leaving for her home next morning, Ellen and Gibbs, Josselyn's son of her fellow guest. He has disapproved of his father's wedlock and is not speaking terms with the couple, declining to stay at Mrs. Rose's. Gibbs drives Ellen to the station. They miss the train and Gibbs undertakes to drive the car to Port Washington. On the way their auto is wrecked. Ellen is hurt, but it is not serious. Gibbs is seriously injured and Gibbs part. He has been attracted by the girl, and she by him.

Riding a girder is not a job for a nervous man.

BUT no one is nervous by choice. There is a way that you may so strengthen your body that the nervous system will be cushioned on sound muscles and flesh. But this condition will not come about unless you have rich red-blood-cells. Red-blood-cells are the most important thing in all the world to each of us. More red-blood-cells! That's what you need when your nerves give way and you cannot control yourself.

S.S.S. will prove to you its "Why" and "How" reason. Since 1826 S.S.S. has helped thousands. Because S.S.S. does build blood-power, it builds you up when you are run-down, clears the system of blood impurities; rids so-called "skin disorders" and stops rheumatism, too.

This is why S.S.S. is accepted as the greatest of all blood purifiers, blood builders and system strengtheners. Start taking S.S.S. today. Its medicinal ingredients are purely vegetable. Your nerves will become stronger, you will have more energy, vitality and vigor and a more up and going appearance.

S. S. S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.

S.S.S. Makes You Feel Like Yourself Again

AIRDOME

TONIGHT

Constance Talmadge

—IN—

“HER NIGHT OF ROMANCE”

And It's Some Night, Too

—and—

The Harmony Six
Fun Makers

TOMORROW

DELMAR

The Hypnotist and Handcuff King. He challenges all to bring their own handcuffs and shackles and offers $25 reward for any that will hold him.

See him escape from jail Friday afternoon at 4:30—it's free.

misery for which she was indirectly responsible, and which she could not help.

Ellen agreed to this somewhat reluctantly. The girl hungered for the romantic and dramatic; life thrust her back resolutely into the commonplace, do what she might. But she was learning patience and self-control, coming to believe that what made for happiness and harmony here, in the old house, was her first concern.

April was rainy, and May was rainy, but the miracle of the year went on despite the rain. A film of green shone on the hard dark earth of the garden and against the bare limbs of the trees, and sweet wild winds swept over the world with the odor of dampened soil and bursting buds in their wake.

Then suddenly there were still hot days. All the windows were open, and a scent of lilacs drifted through the house.

Ellen, a little thin and limp, but dressed and radiant, had a comfortable chair under the lilac tree, and waved now and then at friendly passers-by in the street. She had a book, but often she sat dreaming blissfully, with the pages unturned, for hours at a time. No book was half so exciting as was a slow walk to the gate, with a stop on the way back to gather herself a dozen violets, or a plume of lilac. Spring had never seemed half so lovely, or the world so kind.

The glory of the year deepened swiftly, and joy kept pace with it in Ellen's heart. The harness was long gone, the couch was upstairs again, and only a cushioned rocking-chair in its place. Ellen could sweep the garden path again, with her blue sunbonnet over her eyes. Ellen could cut out cookies on condition that she went straight upstairs and lay down for an hour afterward. Except that she usually went to bed at eight o'clock, and avoided the more violent forms of youthful amusement, Ellen might live her old life again.

But it would never be the old life. It was so enriched and so enhanced by the five long months in prison that Ellen felt sensations of freedom absolutely birdlike, warmth and flowers and blue sky intoxicated her. Leonard Henshaw, for whose attentions she had wistfully longed a year ago, was her captive now, but she did not want to marry Leonard Henshaw. She only wanted to be alive, and to claim her work and play among the living again. May thirtieth, always a great day in Port Washington annals, broke cloudless, and found all the village already in holiday mood. The yacht clubs would go into commission at high noon, with every imaginable form of gaiety to do honor to the occasion. At the Port Washington club, where Ellen and her friends would presently gather, there were to be swimming races, a great outdoor luncheon, a baseball game between the married and the unmarried men, moving pictures, games and prizes for the small children, a dance until long after midnight, and, of course, the raising of the four lives again.

Ellen laughed, and for the young Latimers the episode seemed closed. And yet not only to Ellen, and to Gibbs Josselyn, but to Joe and the innocent Harriet of the hanging locks, the hour was filled with possibilities, and never to be stricken from the calendar of the four lives again.

For Gibbs had caught the name Joe called to George Lathrop, Senior, and had mused upon it.

“Latimer—that's funny. Latimer and Port Washington—he might be her cousin or something. I suppose the same names run through all grades in these old country places. If he comes at six, I'll ask him if he knows my little lady. What did Mrs. Rose call her?—Helen, that was it!”

“Is there any one down here named Helen Latimer?” he duly asked Joe, late in the sweet summer afternoon, when the races were over.

“No, sir. I guess my grandfather and my sister and I are the only ones of that name,” Joe answered, after a moment's thought.

“You never heard of a lady named Mrs. Rose—Mrs. Sewall Rose?” “Sure I did!” Joe said, smiling. “She's the lady that got my sister started in the art school!”

“Well, of course!” Gibbs was surprised at his own pleasure in identifying her at last. “Your sister, that's it! And what is her name?”

“Ellen,” Joe smiled.

“Ellen, of course!” Gibbs echoed. “Well, how is she?”

“Oh, she's all right now,” Joe answered carelessly. “If you're coming ashore for the dance tonight, you'll see her. She can't dance, except just a little, but she's going down.”

“I hardly think we will come in for the dance,” Gibbs answered. “Funny—she looks as if she could dance! But you give her my love—Mr. Josselyn, will you?”

At the dinner table George Lathrop asked Gibbs if he had noticed that boy. That was no sort of boy to be knocking about the water front of a small fishing village, he had an exceptionally fine face.

“I'd like to get hold of a boy like that, and keep him about the place,” Lathrop said, enthusiastically. “It would be the making of George.”

“Well, if you like the boy, I assure you you'd be amazed at the sister,” Gibbs said. “She's a little beauty; dainty, clever, quick as a whip! I take it they're the best sort of American blood, come of a long line of simple, decent people.”

“What's the matter with her?” Lathrop asked.

“The matter with her—how d'you mean?” Gibbs, who was mixing a salad dressing, looked up sharply.

“Why, she's sickly, or something,” his host answered innocently. “Didn't you hear the boy say this morning that she couldn't swim any more, and just now, didn't you hear him say that she couldn't dance?”

“He said she'd been in a motor accident, and hurt her spine,” Little George said. “But she got the prize for swimming last year, and second prize in the ladies' singles. What is it, Uncle Gibbs?”

For Gibbs had laid down his fork and was staring at him strangely. “Great Lord!” he said in a horrified undertone. “But that couldn't be!” And as they all looked at him in surprise.

“This is going to be the girls' race

now,” said the boy, when he and George, Junior, had discussed several important matters. “They'll all line up here, and dive, and swim to the float, and touch it, and then swim back.”

On the pier, the crowd was gathering to watch the races, and presently a dozen slender laughing girls in wet bathing suits formed a line on the edge of the float, and at the crack of the pistol were into the water with one shout, and tearing like so many salmon for the swimmers' float. The sweatered boy was now heard to observe to George, Junior:

“That's my sister out there on the float. She could beat 'em all! She got first prize last year, and two years ago. She fell out of an automobile, and hurt her spine, and they won't let her swim yet.”

“I don't know what she's doing in that rig, then,” Gibbs observed.

“Oh, well, she swims, but she can't race!”

Gibbs thought the big, loosely-built country fellow had a most engaging smile, and paid small attention to his words at the moment. Meanwhile Ellen, wrapped in a mantle of drying black hair, was rocking herself back and forth on the float, discussing the races, and congratulating the winner. Perhaps she noticed the two strange men and the boy who dived suddenly from the anchor float, but as this chanced to be the moment when the Henshaw boys, with two girl passengers, elected to upset their canoe, it was probable that she saw nothing of the visitors.

Later, when she and Aunt Elsie were busy at the lunch tables that had been built on the green between the clubhouse and the tennis courts, and with a score of other women were cutting cakes, helping salad, and pouring coffee, Joe lunged up to them, gorging on sandwiches, interested in all other forms of food, and even willing to be useful in some not too conspicuous way.

“There's a feller on one of the yachts that ast me to come out with a boat, about four o'clock, and bring him in to get cigarettes and ice and butter and things,” Joe volunteered. “He asked me my name, and I said Latimer. I get sick of this ‘Joe—Joe—Joe’ business. Every wop in the place is named Joe! Gosh, that kid with them must have things pretty easy. His sister was there, a little kid—but Gosh, she was a pippin! Harriet! She's about ten or twelve with her hair all hanging round!”

Ellen laughed, and for the young Latimers the episode seemed closed. And yet not only to Ellen, and to Gibbs Josselyn, but to Joe and the innocent Harriet of the hanging locks, the hour was filled with possibilities, and never to be stricken from the calendar of the four lives again.

For Gibbs had caught the name Joe called to George Lathrop, Senior, and had mused upon it.

“Latimer—that's funny. Latimer and Port Washington—he might be her cousin or something. I suppose the same names run through all grades in these old country places. If he comes at six, I'll ask him if he knows my little lady. What did Mrs. Rose call her?—Helen, that was it!”

“Is there any one down here named Helen Latimer?” he duly asked Joe, late in the sweet summer afternoon, when the races were over.

“No, sir. I guess my grandfather and my sister and I are the only ones of that name,” Joe answered, after a moment's thought.

“You never heard of a lady named Mrs. Rose—Mrs. Sewall Rose?”

“Sure I did!” Joe said, smiling. “She's the lady that got my sister started in the art school!”

“Well, of course!” Gibbs was surprised at his own pleasure in identifying her at last. “Your sister, that's it! And what is her name?”

“Ellen,” Joe smiled.

“Ellen, of course!” Gibbs echoed.

“Well, how is she?”

“Oh, she's all right now,” Joe answered carelessly. “If you're coming ashore for the dance tonight, you'll see her. She can't dance, except just a little, but she's going down.”

“I hardly think we will come in for the dance,” Gibbs answered. “Funny—she looks as if she could dance! But you give her my love—Mr. Josselyn, will you?”

At the dinner table George Lathrop asked Gibbs if he had noticed that boy. That was no sort of boy to be knocking about the water front of a small fishing village, he had an exceptionally fine face.

“I'd like to get hold of a boy like that, and keep him about the place,” Lathrop said, enthusiastically. “It would be the making of George.”

“Well, if you like the boy, I assure you you'd be amazed at the sister,” Gibbs said. “She's a little beauty; dainty, clever, quick as a whip! I take it they're the best sort of American blood, come of a long line of simple, decent people.”

“What's the matter with her?” Lathrop asked.

“The matter with her—how d'you mean?” Gibbs, who was mixing a salad dressing, looked up sharply.

“Why, she's sickly, or something,” his host answered innocently. “Didn't you hear the boy say this morning that she couldn't swim any more, and just now, didn't you hear him say that she couldn't dance?”

“He said she'd been in a motor accident, and hurt her spine,” Little George said. “But she got the prize for swimming last year, and second prize in the ladies' singles. What is it, Uncle Gibbs?”

For Gibbs had laid down his fork and was staring at him strangely. “Great Lord!” he said in a horrified undertone. “But that couldn't be!” And as they all looked at him in surprise.

“This is going to be the girls' race

now,” said the boy, when he and George, Junior, had discussed several important matters. “They'll all line up here, and dive, and swim to the float, and touch it, and then swim back.”

On the pier, the crowd was gathering to watch the races, and presently a dozen slender laughing girls in wet bathing suits formed a line on the edge of the float, and at the crack of the pistol were into the water with one shout, and tearing like so many salmon for the swimmers' float. The sweatered boy was now heard to observe to George, Junior:

“That's my sister out there on the float. She could beat 'em all! She got first prize last year, and two years ago. She fell out of an automobile, and hurt her spine, and they won't let her swim yet.”

“I don't know what she's doing in that rig, then,” Gibbs observed.

“Oh, well, she swims, but she can't race!”

Gibbs thought the big, loosely-built country fellow had a most engaging smile, and paid small attention to his words at the moment. Meanwhile Ellen, wrapped in a mantle of drying black hair, was rocking herself back and forth on the float, discussing the races, and congratulating the winner. Perhaps she noticed the two strange men and the boy who dived suddenly from the anchor float, but as this chanced to be the moment when the Henshaw boys, with two girl passengers, elected to upset their canoe, it was probable that she saw nothing of the visitors.

Later, when she and Aunt Elsie were busy at the lunch tables that had been built on the green between the clubhouse and the tennis courts, and with a score of other women were cutting cakes, helping salad, and pouring coffee, Joe lunged up to them, gorging on sandwiches, interested in all other forms of food, and even willing to be useful in some not too conspicuous way.

“There's a feller on one of the yachts that ast me to come out with a boat, about four o'clock, and bring him in to get cigarettes and ice and butter and things,” Joe volunteered. “He asked me my name, and I said Latimer. I get sick of this ‘Joe—Joe—Joe’ business. Every wop in the place is named Joe! Gosh, that kid with them must have things pretty easy. His sister was there, a little kid—but Gosh, she was a pippin! Harriet! She's about ten or twelve with her hair all hanging round!”

Ellen laughed, and for the young Latimers the episode seemed closed. And yet not only to Ellen, and to Gibbs Josselyn, but to Joe and the innocent Harriet of the hanging locks, the hour was filled with possibilities, and never to be stricken from the calendar of the four lives again.

For Gibbs had caught the name Joe called to George Lathrop, Senior, and had mused upon it.

“Latimer—that's funny. Latimer and Port Washington—he might be her cousin or something. I suppose the same names run through all grades in these old country places. If he comes at six, I'll ask him if he knows my little lady. What did Mrs. Rose call her?—Helen, that was it!”

“Is there any one down here named Helen Latimer?” he duly asked Joe, late in the sweet summer afternoon, when the races were over.

“No, sir. I guess my grandfather and my sister and I are the only ones of that name,” Joe answered, after a moment's thought.

“You never heard of a lady named Mrs. Rose—Mrs. Sewall Rose?”

“Sure I did!” Joe said, smiling. “She's the lady that got my sister started in the art school!”

“Well, of course!” Gibbs echoed.

“Well, how is she?”

“Oh, she's all right now,” Joe answered carelessly. “If you're coming ashore for the dance tonight, you'll see her. She can't dance, except just a little, but she's going down.”

“I hardly think we will come in for the dance,” Gibbs answered. “Funny—she looks as if she could dance! But you give her my love—Mr. Josselyn, will you?”</

The Albany-Decatur Daily

418 Second Ave., Albany, Ala.

Published every afternoon, except Sunday, in Albany, Ala., by the TENNESSEE VALLEY PRINTING COMPANY, INC.

Entered as second-class matter February 26, 1912, at the post office at Albany, Ala., July 1, 1917, under Act of March 8, 1926.

W. R. SHELTON, Founder-Editor
1912-1924B. C. SHELTON, Managing Editor
BENJAMIN BLOODWORTH, Editor
R. T. SHEPPARD, Business Manager

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for re-publication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published therein.

All rights of re-publication of special dispatches herein are reserved.

Telephone: Local 46 Long Distance: 9901

SUBSCRIPTION RATES

By mail, daily, one month	.60
By carrier, daily, per week	.11
By mail, daily, three months	$1.50
By mail, daily, six months	$2.70
By mail, daily, one year	$4.50

12 Years Ago From The Daily of TODAY

June 11, 1913

Much bidding is expected to occur at the meeting of the New Decatur city council Monday night, when bids are received for street paving in the city.

The supreme court has ruled adversely to the Elks club in a test case, brought to clear up legal points involved in regulations of locker clubs.

E. D. "Dad" Bixby, popular hotel man, on June 15 will become chief clerk at the Lyons hotel.

BUREAU OF VITAL STATISTICS MAKES DRIVE FOR BIRTH REGISTRATIONS

The bureau of vital statistics is making one of its periodical drives to acquaint the people with the many benefits of proper registration of births and other information about themselves.

The world war brought to the attention of the people, in a forcible manner, the carelessness with which we had attended to this matter of birth registration. Many young men, and some old ones, were unable to prove anything at all about their legal ages, because of the absence of birth registration at the courthouse of the county in which they were born.

Like many other lessons of the war, we seem to have forgotten the experience of those days, and we are becoming careless again.

A few of the major reasons why all births should be registered promptly have been compiled in a short list, which is well worth reading:

"As evidence to prove the age and legitimacy of heirs.

"As proof of age to determine the validity of a contract entered into by an alleged minor.

"As evidence to establish age and proof of citizenship and descent in order to vote.

"As evidence to establish the right of admission to the professions and to many public offices.

"As evidence of legal age to marry.

"As evidence to prove the claims of widows."

HAS SENATOR UNDERWOOD DEFINITELY DECIDED NOT TO MAKE THE RACE?

Politicians have found much to ponder over in the announcement of Judge Mayfield, associate member of the supreme court of Alabama, that he will be a candidate for the United States senate, if Senator Underwood is not a candidate for re-election.

This statement is taken by some at its face value, others profess to see in the declaration a belief on the part of Judge Mayfield that Mr. Underwood will retire at the expiration of his current term.

While Alabama's senior senator still withholds positive announcement of his intentions, senatorial candidates are springing up all over the state. If the solon eliminates himself from consideration, a record-breaking entry list is indicated. The senatorial bee is buzzing in scores of bonnets.

"I'm going to run," asserts Hugo L. Black, of Birmingham, adding that he believes it is too early yet to start an aggressive campaign.

John H. Bankhead, of Jasper, is quoted as having indicated to friends that he desires to make the race.

L. B. Musgrave again is spoken of in connection with the campaign. He is out of the state at present, but several of his close friends declare he will make his announcement at the "proper time."

If as many actually go to the post in the race, as now appears probable, the senatorial candidates might adopt the plan of campaign used by the candidates in Morgan county a year or two ago. The men asking the voters for political preferment, arranged a series of meetings in nearly every beat in the county. They shared the expense and each candidate was allotted a few minutes of time to present his claims.

There was no mud-slinging, but the voters were informed by the candidate, in person, just what he stood for, what he hoped to accomplish if rewarded with office, and what the voter could expect under the administration of the candidate, if the latter was successful.

The trip, undoubtedly, was wearying to the candidates themselves, for it is no small job to appear before several different audiences and travel scores of miles in automobiles in one day. The voters, however, really appreciated the gatherings and turned out in goodly numbers to attend them.

A senatorial campaign on the same principle would be an interesting innovation.

AGE-HERALD URGES CLOSER CO-OPERATION BETWEEN BIRMINGHAM AND THE VALLEY

Realizing that "if mutual benefits" would be derived from close co-operation between Birmingham and the Tennessee Valley, that "mutual losses" are suffered when there is an absence of this cordial relationship, the Age-Herald urges that serious consideration be given to the question of bringing this co-operation about.

It is a subject deserving the careful thought of leaders of both sections, "The Age-Herald affirms. The Birmingham paper is absolutely correct and if, by its suggestion, it brings about such consideration, with resultant discovery of means to bring the Valley and Birmingham closer together, the Age-Herald will have rendered a great public service to both its own community and this section.

How can this co-operation be brought about? The Age-Herald suggests that better highway communication would be one way. Morgan county, it must be remembered, used the very first state road money she obtained in construction of the Bee Line Highway, south of here, toward Birmingham. That there is not an asphalt road from here every mile into Birmingham is no fault of this county. Activity toward finishing this project might help the situation some.

Morgan county is using her next state money in completion of the Lawrence county road, going into Moulton and sections of that county. This road will connect with the Bee Line here. Morgan and Lawrence are doing their bit. Inasmuch as the contract is to be let in July, it may be too late for Birmingham to help in this project, but the Magic City, at least, will, or should be, vitally interested in the connection of these two highways here, forming a direct "feed line" into Birmingham.

Next Morgan county expects to obtain an asphalt road from here to the Tri-Cities by way of Courtland, Town Creek, Hillsboro and Wheeler. The road is fairly good now and permits operation of a bus line, enabling connection to be made here with the Pan-American, going south to Birmingham, every night. That is another "feed line" from the Tennessee Valley, which Birmingham should be prepared to take advantage of.

The Southern railway recently has moved up its west bound train here in the evening, also to make connection with the Pan-American. That gives Birmingham direct contact every evening with the rich territory around Huntsville and eastward of the thriving Madison county capital.

We are going to build a bridge across the Tennessee river here, which will open up all of the rich territory to Athens and beyond to Rogersville. Birmingham will reap a rich harvest from the trade the bridge here will enable her to obtain, if she takes full advantage of the opportunity. Fortunately, the bids have been advertised and contract for the bridge is expected to be let in July. Again it may be too late for Birmingham to aid in the project, but Birmingham should be very much concerned in its success.

Another highway dream, we people up here have, is the construction of a road from here to Guntersville. This highway would virtually tie up the entire Tennessee Valley in a system of improved highways and Birmingham could help us mightily to obtain it, when the proper time comes.

Recently a freight bus line has been established between Albany-Decatur and Nashville. The line, The Daily is informed, operates on a regular schedule. If that straw doesn't indicate to the Birmingham business people the way the wind is blowing, they lack the perception we had given them credit for.

The Age-Herald's editorial suggestions are timely and valuable. The Daily believes they will accomplish an immense amount of good in Birmingham, and The Daily hopes that the following expressions of the Magic City paper will be equally as beneficial in the Valley:

Birmingham And The Valley

"There is no doubt that the Albany-Decatur Daily, in stressing and deprecating an apparent absence of reciprocal sympathies and relationships between the people of the Tennessee Valley and Birmingham, reflects in faithful degree a belief prevalent among the people of the Valley. That there is such lack of reciprocal relations is not due of course to any deliberate policy on the part of either the people of Birmingham or the people of the Valley. It is due rather to the fact that each has been more or less immersed in its own affairs, and to the fact that Birmingham has been growing too fast for its various contacts to the harmoniously and symmetrically developed. But to neglect the mutuality of interest existing between Birmingham and the Tennessee Valley is not the part of wisdom for this community. On the contrary, there should be definite effort to establish those business and social relations with the Valley that make for understanding and reciprocal benefit."

"The trade relations between the two communities are capable of far greater expansion than is perhaps realized. For Birmingham is not getting her full share of the Valley's trade. According to the Daily:

Tennessee communities are getting a great deal of the trade from this territory, which ordinarily would go to Birmingham. This is Birmingham's loss. The Magic City can very well afford to do without this business. This, we know. But does Birmingham gain anything by missing this business? She does not. The Daily feels that Birmingham has not been as cordial toward the Valley as she might have been. Probably the Valley could continue to grow and prosper, regardless of what Birmingham's attitude is or will be; but will we gain anything by failure to live in close cordiality and co-operation with Birmingham? We will not.

"It is probable that the editor of the Daily is but expressing the view of his community in the above statement. There is already prepared for Birmingham enterprise and for Birmingham efforts at a closer communion of interest the one indispensable element in such a communion, namely, the receptive attitude of the people of the Valley. No city ever gets so big that it can get along without the respect, friendship and co-operative disposition of its neighbors. Even if a city should attain such a size, Birmingham will not reach it for another century. And by that time perhaps the cordial esteem of the people of this surrounding region will be an asset treasured too dearly for our descendants to permit it to lapse.

"In this day and age, the one indispensable adjunct in promoting a neighborly feeling between two contiguous communities is convenient and efficient highway connection. If there were several paved highways leading from Birmingham to the various points in the Tennessee Valley, these highways would be thickly traversed by travelers in both directions, and by trucks taking and bringing back merchandise. Perhaps the first step in an active effort to bring the two sections into closer relationship would logically center on the construction, not of one highway, but of several, following direct routes into the heart of the Valley.

To quote again from the Albany-Decatur Daily:

The Tennessee Valley and Birmingham have a great deal in common. Both have made rapid strides toward a greater destiny, but both would be benefited by close co-operation with each other. If that spirit of mutual helpfulness can be brought about we will both gain tremendously.

"If there is lack of contact and understanding, it is not due to any deliberate intent on the part of Birmingham, nor the Valley, but rather to the inertia of being busy about home affairs and to lack of any definite leadership tending to change the situation. But if mutual benefit would derive from mutual contacts, then surely mutual loss is sustained by their lack. It is a subject deserving the careful thought of leaders of both sections."

In the News Spotlight

Above: LORD BEAVERBROOK & THEODORE BURTON
Below: EX-KAISER WILHELM & PRESIDENT VON HINDENBURG

Lord Beaverbrook declared France is fully able to pay her debts and she must pay Britain before paying the United States. Congressman Theodore Burton of Ohio, chairman of the American delegation, offered a resolution against poison gas which was adopted unanimously by the Geneva Arms Control Conference. Wilhelm von Hohenzollern, once the Kaiser of Germany, has assembled at his Doorn home a number of scientists to study ancient Greek and Oriental cultures. President von Hindenburlg believes it will not be hard for Germany to meet the disarmament demands of the Allied note.

in Birmingham for the past few days has returned to his home.

Austinville News

Mrs. Edward Burt who has been seriously ill at her home is slightly improved.

The Rev. W. M. Wade who has been

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Stroup are expecting Mr. and Mrs. Jack McGinn of Los Angeles, Cal., this week.

Hollis Johnson visited friends in Birmingham Sunday.

Mrs. Lethel McElroy of Albany spent Tuesday with her mother Mrs. A. T. Beatty.

Mrs. Jim Lipscomb of Slidell Louisiana is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Parker.

Joe Lee Parker of Birmingham is visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Parker.

Mrs. Roy Odom is ill at the home of her mother, Mrs. R. F. Woodard.

Shirley Gravitt, Miss Evelyn Sneed

Clopton Back From Long Northern Trip

J. W. Clopton returned Thursday from a trip to points in Michigan, New York and Canada. Mr. Clopton was the guest for several days of J. Robert Crouse at his lodge, Waldenwoods, in the Michigan woods.

The occasion was the gathering of ice cream manufacturers of the United States and Canada.

Following the conference which was held at Detroit, Mr. Clopton was the guest of E. C. Payne at North Tonawanda, N. Y. The trip to Buffalo was made by boat from Detroit. After a trip to Niagara and a brief stay in Canada the return trip to Albany-Decatur was made.

and Mrs. Freeman Brumelow motor ed to Memphis, Tenn., Saturday.

Welcome---
Kiwanians

May your visit to Albany-Decatur be both pleasant and helpful.

Rahm Clothing Co.

Seems Like End-Season Clearance Time
When You Look at the Prices We Are Marking On--White Footwear
for women and children

But the wide variety of newest styles in full range of sizes convince you without consulting a calendar that it is just the beginning of the "Season of White."

AT $7.75

A glove-fit one-strap for women in finest grade of white kid. It's a J. & K. that we have been selling at $10. Cut-out collar of neat design—not overdone—and a 14-ss dress heel.

AT $7.75

Another J. & K. pump for women that has been selling at $10. Best quality white kid. Fancy cut-out front with button effect. Cuban heel.

AT $6.25

A most popular number for women in sandal effect. White kid, airy, with strap. Low comfort heel. Reduced from $8.

AT $2.95 AND $3.95

A group of women's oxfords and straps in white canvas. High and low heels. Numerous patterns. Formerly priced at $5 to $6.50.

Numerous other styles in white for women, as well as for children of all ages, at equal or greater savings.

Every woman's and child's shoe in stock has been reduced as we are discontinuing these departments. Sale started yesterday—continues until all are sold. While you're here to see the white footwear, don't fail to look at the closing-out values in satins, light-weight calf, patent, etc.

Come Tomorrow--Avoid Saturday's Rush

H. R. Speake

503 Bank Street

Decatur, Ala.

Did It Ever Occur to You

This price is not the first, thing to be considered in a job of printing! Throwing type together in a haphazard way does not require any knowledge of the printing art. That isn't the kind of work you want. But artistic typography & stationery and advertising reflects credit to my concern. Our knowledge of printing gained by long experience enables us to produce

Attractive Printing for Every Purpose

Don't order anything in this line until you call on us.

WOULDN'T IT be a pleasure to you to know if you were having a good watch repaired that the watch-maker was both competent and reliable? We specialize on doing high grade watch work at reasonable prices.

Thornton & Price
Watchmakers.

Comfort Style and Economy

Be comfortable these warm days—brighten up your wardrobe with three or four of these stylish Hats at economical prices.

FOR FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

A One—Two—Three Sale of Hats—Hats formerly priced up to $12.50, to be sold for—

$1 $2 AND $3

LOT NO. 1 ALL HATS	LOT NO. 2 ALL HATS	LOT NO. 3 ALL HATS
$1	$2	$3

During the Hours of
10 to 11, and 2 to 3
This Coupon Will Be Accepted For 50c on the Purchase of Any Hat.

COUPON
GOOD FOR 50c
FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

We really want you to use the above coupon. If you select one of the $1.00 Special Hats, this coupon presented during hours mentioned, your hat will only cost you Fifty Cents. Coupons must be presented during said hours. You will be well repaid to visit this Hat Sale.

The Princess Shoppe

The Right Hat For the Right Woman
Second Avenue Albany

Week-End Specials

For Friday and Saturday

NEW FROCKS

All received within the last few days

All Prints	$13.75
All Chiffons	$12.75
Sport Georgettes	$15
White Sport Dresses in Georgette and Crepe	$15
All Voiles	$5.50

Felt Hats in white and colors—

$3.50 and $4.50

Closing out remainder of our Summer Hats at—

$2 and $3

The Grey Shoppe

Echols Hotel Building Decatur

Don't Forget It's Contest Night
Tonight
at Malone Pool

Come win a prize.
Stunts for Everybody.

BOBBED HAIR looks wonderful with the tiny tint of Golden Glint Shampoo.

SOCIETY

Margaret C. Shelton—Phone Decatur 362.

SOCIAL CALENDAR

THURSDAY

Thursday Club Mrs. H. E. Dryden Jr
Thursday Bridge Club, Mrs. Robert Gray
Shower honoring Miss Pappenburg given by Mrs. Rogers Bethany.

FRIDAY

Dinner party for Miss Pappenburg with Miss Louise Holtmann hostess
Friday Thirteen Mrs. William Moseley, Jr.

MRS. PEROLIO'S PARTY

Mrs. Andrew Perolio was a bridge hostess of Wednesday afternoon entertaining for Mrs. Ponsomby Kyle, of Lake Worth, Fla., who is the guest of Mrs. O. Kyle. Bowls of nasturtiums added attractive touches to the living and dining room where the bridge games were enjoyed during the afternoon.

Mrs. Preuit Stinson made top score and was presented three dainty hand-made hankies as a souvenir.

Late in the afternoon refreshments were served to those present including Mrs. Ponsomby Kyle, Mrs. O. Kyle Mrs. B. A. Turner, Mrs. Robert Gray Mrs. F. M. Robertson, Mrs. R. M. Buchanan, Mrs. George Clemm, Mrs. B. M. Bloodworth, Mrs. Preuit Stinson, Mrs. J. P. Brock, Mrs. J. M. Hatfield and Mrs. Ellen Dallas.

BOX SUPPER AT TRINITY

A box supper will be given on Friday evening at the school house in Trinity at eight o'clock. Everyone is cordially invited.

MISS PAPPENBERG HONORED

The first of this week's social activities that have been planned in honor of Miss Marguerite Pappenberg was given on Wednesday evening when Miss Hildegrade Holtmann entertained in compliment to her at a bridge party. Bunches of sweet peas were used throughout the home setting a color scheme of pink and white that was further emphasized in the pink and white ices, mints and cake served at the conclusion of this lovely affair.

Those included in Miss Holtmann's guest list were the honoree, and Mrs. Rogers Bethany, Mrs. Fred Sittason Mrs. S. Berry, Mrs. I. D. Carlisle of Huntsville, Mrs. W. P. Adams, Mrs. Jack Pirtle, Misses Louis Ellner, Helen Nebrig, Marguerite and Miam Wiegand, Myrtle Patterson, Katherine and Emily Schneider and Louise Holtmann.

Among these Mrs. Fred Sittason made highest score at the bridge game for which she received a souvenir. A pretty gift was presented to Miss Pappenberg.

Rev. and Mrs. V. C. Herndon left Trinity this week to take up their work at Haleyville where Rev. Herndon will be president of the J. O. Haynes school.

Mrs. Buchheit is improving after an illness at her home in Trinity.

Miss Katherine Chunn is rapidly improving after having her tonsils removed on Monday.

Miss Mildred Byars has returned from a few days visit to Birmingham.

Mrs. Eldon Strain and Mrs. B. K. Wiggins expect to leave Tuesday for a visit to relatives in Lynchburg, Tenn., making the trip by motor.

Misses Sarah Pearl and Ruth Emens have returned from Peabody College in Nashville and are at home in Trinity.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Baker of Birmingham who spent the past week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Smith returned to their home on Wednesday and they were accompanied by Miss Vera Smith for a visit.

Mrs. William Lovelady will leave Friday to join Mr. Lovelady in Tampa, Fla., to make their home.

Miss Susie Smith will leave next week to spend the remainder of the summer in Birmingham where she will study commercial drawing under Paul Pim.

Miss Martha Jane Coppage of Glasgow, Ky., is the guest of her father, W. A. Coppage.

Misses Annie Demont, Bessie King and Mae Livingston have returned from the B. Y. P. U. convention at Menton, Ala.

Miss Edith Hollingsworth has returned from a two weeks visit to relatives and friends in Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. John Chappell and their niece Miss Elsie Brown of Mt. Pleasant, Tenn., are the guests of their son, J. E. Chappell and Mrs. Chappell.

Miss De Alva Alexander is visiting relatives and friends in Pulaski and Nashville, Tenn.

DINNER PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Dutton delightfully entertained on Monday with a spend the day party complimenting Miss Eleanor Grimmett, of Huntsville who is visiting Misses Edith and Irene Hollingsworth.

For the delicious dinner that was served at noon covers were laid for the following: Misses Edith and Irene Hollingsworth, Eleanor Grimmett, of Huntsville who is visiting Misses Edith and Irene Hollingsworth.

Mrs. Preuit Stinson made top score and was presented three dainty hand-made hankies as a souvenir.

Late in the afternoon refreshments were served to those present including Mrs. Ponsomby Kyle, Mrs. O. Kyle Mrs. B. A. Turner, Mrs. Robert Gray Mrs. F. M. Robertson, Mrs. R. M. Buchanan, Mrs. George Clemm, Mrs. B. M. Bloodworth, Mrs. Preuit Stinson, Mrs. J. P. Brock, Mrs. J. M. Hatfield and Mrs. Ellen Dallas.

Edward King motored to Florence today.

Rayburn Neville is visiting his mother in Camden, Tenn.

Redding Emens of Trinity was the guest of friends here en route to Montgomery where he will spend the summer as interne in a hospital there.

Edward King motored to Florence today.

Rayburn Neville is visiting his mother in Camden, Tenn.

Redding Emens of Trinity was the guest of friends here en route to Montgomery where he will spend the summer as interne in a hospital there.

Edward King motored to Florence today.

Rayburn Neville is visiting his mother in Camden, Tenn.

Redding Emens of Trinity was the guest of friends here en route to Montgomery where he will spend the summer as interne in a hospital there.

Edward King motored to Florence today.

Rayburn Neville is visiting his mother in Camden, Tenn.

Redding Emens of Trinity was the guest of friends here en route to Montgomery where he will spend the summer as interne in a hospital there.

Edward King motored to Florence today.

Rayburn Neville is visiting his mother in Camden, Tenn.

Redding Emens of Trinity was the guest of friends here en route to Montgomery where he will spend the summer as interne in a hospital there.

Edward King motored to Florence today.

Rayburn Neville is visiting his mother in Camden, Tenn.

Redding Emens of Trinity was the guest of friends here en route to Montgomery where he will spend the summer as interne in a hospital there.

Edward King motored to Florence today.

Rayburn Neville is visiting his mother in Camden, Tenn.

Redding Emens of Trinity was the guest of friends here en route to Montgomery where he will spend the summer as interne in a hospital there.

Edward King motored to Florence today.

Rayburn Neville is visiting his mother in Camden, Tenn.

Redding Emens of Trinity was the guest of friends here en route to Montgomery where he will spend the summer as interne in a hospital there.

Edward King motored to Florence today.

Rayburn Neville is visiting his mother in Camden, Tenn.

Redding Emens of Trinity was the guest of friends here en route to Montgomery where he will spend the summer as interne in a hospital there.

Edward King motored to Florence today.

Rayburn Neville is visiting his mother in Camden, Tenn.

Redding Emens of Trinity was the guest of friends here en route to Montgomery where he will spend the summer as interne in a hospital there.

Edward King motored to Florence today.

Rayburn Neville is visiting his mother in Camden, Tenn.

Redding Emens of Trinity was the guest of friends here en route to Montgomery where he will spend the summer as interne in a hospital there.

Edward King motored to Florence today.

Rayburn Neville is visiting his mother in Camden, Tenn.

Redding Emens of Trinity was the guest of friends here en route to Montgomery where he will spend the summer as interne in a hospital there.

Edward King motored to Florence today.

Rayburn Neville is visiting his mother in Camden, Tenn.

Redding Emens of Trinity was the guest of friends here en route to Montgomery where he will spend the summer as interne in a hospital there.

Edward King motored to Florence today.

Rayburn Neville is visiting his mother in Camden, Tenn.

Redding Emens of Trinity was the guest of friends here en route to Montgomery where he will spend the summer as interne in a hospital there.

Edward King motored to Florence today.

Rayburn Neville is visiting his mother in Camden, Tenn.

Redding Emens of Trinity was the guest of friends here en route to Montgomery where he will spend the summer as interne in a hospital there.

Edward King motored to Florence today.

Rayburn Neville is visiting his mother in Camden, Tenn.

Redding Emens of Trinity was the guest of friends here en route to Montgomery where he will spend the summer as interne in a hospital there.

Edward King motored to Florence today.

Rayburn Neville is visiting his mother in Camden, Tenn.

Redding Emens of Trinity was the guest of friends here en route to Montgomery where he will spend the summer as interne in a hospital there.

Edward King motored to Florence today.

Rayburn Neville is visiting his mother in Camden, Tenn.

Redding Emens of Trinity was the guest of friends here en route to Montgomery where he will spend the summer as interne in a hospital there.

Edward King motored to Florence today.

Rayburn Neville is visiting his mother in Camden, Tenn.

Redding Emens of Trinity was the guest of friends here en route to Montgomery where he will spend the summer as interne in a hospital there.

Edward King motored to Florence today.

Rayburn Neville is visiting his mother in Camden, Tenn.

Redding Emens of Trinity was the guest of friends here en route to Montgomery where he will spend the summer as interne in a hospital there.

Edward King motored to Florence today.

Rayburn Neville is visiting his mother in Camden, Tenn.

Redding Emens of Trinity was the guest of friends here en route to Montgomery where he will spend the summer as interne in a hospital there.

Edward King motored to Florence today.

Rayburn Neville is visiting his mother in Camden, Tenn.

Redding Emens of Trinity was the guest of friends here en route to Montgomery where he will spend the summer as interne in a hospital there.

DAILY
CLASSIFIED ADS

Fill your wants in shorter time at less cost than any other medium.

RATES

One insertion, one cent a word; three insertions, two cents a word. Minimum 25 cents per insertion.

TERMS

Cash with order except business firms having accounts.

TRY A
THREE-TIME AD

It costs less and produces more. You get three insertions at the price of two.

FOLKS—J. A. Thornhill, will highly appreciate your fire insurance, loans, mortgages, deeds, real estate sales and rental account collections. Office 209 Johnston street.

DOWN ON THE BROOK—Under the drift #magine that game trout waiting for the minnow but work keeps us away. Just wait old fellow, we will come later on. J. A. Thornhill.

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—Four year old, gentle Holstein and Jersey cow, with young calf $45.00. Part cash balance terms. Ideal for artificially fed baby. Bettie McWilliam, South Oklahoma Street, Albany. 11-11.

FOR SALE—Porto Rico potato plants fresh from the bed. Inspected and treated $1.50 per thousand, postpaid. J. W. Harris, Cullman, Ala. Route 1, Box 24. 6-6.

FOR SALE OR RENT—Eight room house well equipped with all conveniences for two families. Large barn with two garages, or will rent four room apartment to small family. See owner at 407 Ninth street, South. Phone Albany 459-W. 6-6.

FOR SALE—Windshields, any cars. by C. E. Malone. 27-11.

FOR SALE—Doors, windows, transoms, screen doors, mantles, siding, sheeting, framing, flooring and grates. This is all second hand but in good shape and will be sold cheap in any quantity. Call D. S. Echols. Phone 383 Decatur, Ala. 18-11.

FOR RENT

FOR RENT—Four room cottage on Third avenue West. All modern conveniences. See A. F. Harris, 701 Second avenue. 10-31.

FOR RENT—Apartment with three rooms and bath hot and cold water, steam heat in winter. D. C. Adams. Phone Albany 237. 10-6.

FOR RENT—Two nicely furnished bedrooms, centrally located. All modern conveniences. Call at 820 Line street or phone Decatur 415. 11-8.

FOR RENT—Furnished or unfurnished 9 room house, or one 4 room and one 5 room apartment. All modern conveniences, in 400 block on Sherman street. Phone Albany 47, or 566-J. 6-11.

FOR RENT—Cheap. Quick. House on 6th avenue South. Just papered painted and covered. John W. Wyker 11-6.

FOR RENT—One furnished room. 609 Oak street. Phone 194-J. Decatur. 11-8.

FOR RENT—Two or three furnished rooms at my home. First door from the City Park and three furnished or unfurnished rooms for rent on Fourth avenue west, O. J. Thomas. 11-36.

HOUSE FOR RENT OR SALE at 914 East Lafayette street. Seven rooms with all modern conveniences. Call 336 Decatur. 11-36.

FOR RENT—Two nice office rooms. Apply A. H. Garnett, Albany 410. 9-31.

FOR RENT—Furnished or unfurnished apartment, two or three rooms, with kitchenette, private entrance, private bath, garage 611 East Walnut street. Phone 309 Decatur. 9-31.

LOST OR FOUND

LOST—Green check suit possibly between 7th avenue West and Lafayette street. Has initials "J. N. G." Reward for return to New York Hatters at 120 Lafayette street, Phone Decatur 474. 9-31.

TILLIE
THE TOILER

By Russ
Westover

LOST—Abe Powell's bull dog. Last seen near Flint bridge. Dark chestnut in color. Answers to name "Bruno" $10.00 reward if returned to N. W. George's Bicycle shop Albany or Decatur. 11-31.

Turn in your old refrigerator on a new Eskimo or Washington. Easy terms. Also a number of used refrigerators, all sizes, ranging from $4.50 to $27.50. Payments liberal discounts for cash. Carroll Furniture Co. 16-11.

WANTED—An experienced stenographer for law office. Address P. O. Box 188, Albany, Ala. 9-31.

DAILY
BUYING GUIDE

Your advertisement here is a constant ready reference.

RATES
$7.50 per column inch per month.

PHONE DECATUR 32
TAXI?
We'll Come at Once
Day or Night
W. I. Fuller
Taxicab Service

PLUMBING AND HEATING

We are in position to do all your plumbing and heating work satisfactorily and at most reasonable prices. Call us for an estimate.

E. L. Blackwell Plumbing Co.
Telephone 208 Decatur.
128 Lafayette street.

We Are Now in Our
New Location
PALACE CAFE
"A Good Place to Eat"

COMPLETE BATTERY SERVICE
Generator and Starter Repairing
Ignition Work

We Repair Electric Fans, Irons,
Vacuum Cleaners, etc.

WOODALL'S ELECTRIC SHOP

721 Bank St. Phone Decatur 6

SENECA SPRINGS
MINERAL WATER

DAILY TRUCK
10 Cents the Gallon
Decatur 492

Cain, Wolcott & Rankin
Inc.

COMPLETE INSURANCE SERVICE

BEE LINE HIGHWAY
EXPRESS

Freight Hauling Between Nashville, Albany-Decatur via—

Pulaski, Athens and Ardmore

Freight for above points
call—

TWIN CITY TRANSFER
CO.

Leave Nashville, Monday

and Thursday.

Leave Albany Tuesday

and Friday.

$3,500 IN CASH First Prize
PRICES is $2,000.

Open to
Everybody, Anywhere, FOR ANSWERS IN EDUCATIONAL CONTEST.

Send stamp for Circular, Rules and Questions. SHEFFIELD LABORATORIES, Dept. 9, Aurora, Illinois.

ONE FOUR O
READY TO GO

LIDE'S
Instant Service

NOTICE OF ATTACHMENT

Margaret C. Broadus, Plaintiff vs.

Betty Kitt Newman Browne and
J. F. Browne, defendants.

Circuit Court, Morgan County, Alabama.

WHEREAS, Margaret C. Broadus, as plaintiff in the above styled cause, has obtained an attachment issued out of the Circuit Court of Morgan County, Alabama, on May 27, 1925, against the estate of said Betty Kitt Newman Browne and J. F. Browne, defendants, for the recovery of the sum of seventeen hundred twelve and 50-100 dollars ($1712.50); and,

WHEREAS, said attachment has been executed by C. E. Poole, as sheriff of Morgan County, Alabama, by levying on the following described property, situated in Albany, Morgan County, Alabama, as the property of the said defendants, viz: Lots 47, 49, 51 and 53 Block 12 addition 3 of the Decatur Land, Improvement and Furnace Company to Decatur, Alabama; Also, six (6) room residence and lots 37, 39 and 41, in block 13, addition 3 of the Decatur Land, Improvement and Furnace Company to Decatur, Alabama; and,

WHEREAS, it appears that the said Betty Kitt Newman Browne and J. F. Browne are non-residents of the State of Alabama, and reside in Orlando, Florida:

NOW THEREFORE, the said Betty Kitt Newman Browne, and J. F. Browne are hereby notified of the said attachment and the levy thereof as aforesaid.

WITNESS MY HAND as Clerk of the Circuit Court of Morgan County, Alabama, this May 27, 1925.

J. L. Draper
Clerk.

May 28 June 4-11.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION

Publisher
Department of the Interior

U. S. Land Office at Montgomery, Alabama.

April 23, 1925.

NOTICE is hereby given that William L. Burgess, whose post-office address is Route 1, Danville, Ala., did, on the 14 day of February, 1925, file in this office Sworn Statement and Application, No. 011702, to purchase the NW-4 of the SW-4, Section 20, Township 8 South, Range 5 West, Huntsville, Meridian and the timber thereon, under the provisions of the act of June 3, 1878, and acts amendatory, known as the "Timber and Stone Law," at such value as might be fixed by appraisement, and that pursuant to such application, the land and timber thereon have been appraised, one hundred and twenty and 69-100 dollars, the timber estimated 32,184.00, board feet at $2.50, per M, and the land $40.23; that said applicant will offer final proof in support of his application and sworn statement on the 17th, day of July, 1925, before the Judge of the Probate Court, at Decatur, Alabama.

Any person is at liberty to protest this purchase before entry, or initiate a contest, at any time before patent issues, by filing a corroborated affidavit in this office, alleging facts which would defeat the entry.

E. E. WINTERS, Register.

Apr 30 May 7-14-21-28 Jun 4-11-18-25

For expert workmanship, efficient delivery and complete satisfaction in the job line call Albany 46. Our representative will call and fill your needs in business supplies, circulars, or posters.

Mrs. Crandall (Iowa) Tells How She Stopped Chicken Losses

"Last spring, rats killed all our baby chicks. Wish I'd known about Rat-Snap before. With just one package we killed swarms of rats. They won't get this year's hatch." Rat-Snap is guaranteed and sells for 35c, 65c, $1.25.

Sold and guaranteed by

CADDELL DRUG CO.

CATARRH
of head or throat is usually benefited by the vapors of

VICKS
VAPORUB
Over 17 Million Jars Used Yearly

GABR.
SNUFF
Sun-give favored
it of

AT L.

Advice
to Girls

By ANNIE LAURIE

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE:

I met a young man whom I have been out with several times. I would like to know why he has not asked me out again. I seem to feel awkward in his company and never know the proper way to greet him.

Tell me how to greet him and what I should say when leaving.

GREEN: You must learn to overcome your shyness, my dear. Greet this young man cordially and cheerfully and talk to him of the things which interest you.

When he calls on you make him feel at home by chatting informally. Before you know it he will have taken up the ball of conversation and you will be getting along splendidly. When he leaves he will naturally tell you how pleasant an evening he has spent, and you can say that you enjoyed his company too.

If he has invited you out to see him for the nice time you have had—and that's all there is to it!

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE:

I am a girl still in my teens. I met a young man a short while ago, in whom I am interested. Would it be proper for me to invite him to my home?

BABY BETTY:

BABY BETTY: Most certainly. My dear, write this young man a cordial note, asking him to call. He will probably be delighted at the opportunity for an informal tête-à-tête. When he accepts your invitation, be charming and gracious and you will have laid the foundation for a lasting friendship.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE:

Is it proper for a girl to give presents to a young man to whom she is not engaged?

Should she accept gifts from him?

TOPSY:

Such inexpensive and impersonal gifts as books, candy, flowers or handkerchiefs are quite acceptable from friends, my dear. You should avoid the exchange of photographs or jewelry, because very often this leads to embarrassment later on.

Any impersonal gifts you may give to your friends—books, pipes, bill-folders, etc. come under this heading and are quite within the bounds of convention.

Annie Laurie will welcome letters of inquiry on subjects of feminine interest from young women readers of this paper and will reply to them in these columns. Letters to Miss Laurie should be addressed to her in care of this office.

14 NATIONS UNITE
TO SIMPLIFY WORK
OF POSTAL EXPERTS

WASHINGTON—The Universal Postal Union, acknowledged one of the most potent factors in fostering and establishing friendly relations between nations during its 50 years of existence is about to undertake simplification of its work.

Officials of 14 leading postal administrations of the world will meet at Cortina d'Ampezzo, Italy, July 6, as a special committee to study and seek ways and means of making less burdensome the work of the universal postal congresses of the future, and accelerating their progress. Joseph Stewart executive assistant to Postmaster General New, has been appointed to represent the United States Post Office Department and will sail from New York June 13 on the steamship Leviathan.

The determination to simplify the work of the congresses was decided upon at the eighth universal postal congress held at Stockholm, Sweden, last summer. Its sessions occupied a longer time than any congress except one, and a special committee was named to prepare methods by which the duration of future congresses could be reduced. The next congress will be held at London, England during 1929. The committee will recommend to the various nations a revision of methods of procedure for the congress.

The convention agreed upon at the Stockholm congress will go into effect October 1 this year. President Coolidge and Postmaster General New already have signed the convention and protocols. Under their provisions the postage rates on international letters were changed from the previous maximum and minimum of 10 and 5 cents for the first unit of weight to 8 cents and 4 cents, but a provision permits any country to establish a lower rate with another. Under the latter provision the United States has a 2 cent rate to practically all South and Central American countries and to a number of other countries. Regulations on the imposition of a charge for the Twin C. deficient postage have been changed tonight, also Mr. Murphy, present minimum charge "Railroad Song."

and in any case

of

the 14 nations

will be

</div

Child-birth

JUST how to ease much unnecessary suffering for yourself is one of the most important things in the world for you to know, right now, mother! Learn the simple truth: follow the simple directions of an eminent physician who dedicated his life's work to this great accomplishment for your benefit!

"I was in labor only 23 minutes with my last child, but suffered agonies with three previous children," writes an enthusiastic mother who uses "Mother's Friend."

Right now, from this day on and right up to the day of childbirth "Mother's Friend" should be used.

FREE BOOKLET

Write Bradford Booklet Co., Dept. BA 7, Atlanta, Ga., for free Booklet (sent in plain envelope) telling many things every expectant mother should know. "Mother's Friend" is sold at all good drug stores. Full directions will be found in the booklet. Begin now and you will realize the wisdom of doing so as the weeks roll by!

COMPLETE STOCKS

Phone for food

It's the Better Way

Restores
Health, Energy and Rosy Cheeks

Grove's
Tasteless
Chill Tonic
60c.

666

is a prescription for
Malaria, Chills and Fever,
Dengue or Bilious Fever.
It kills the germs.

SCHEDULE AND RATES

H. & H. BUS LINE

Wm. S. Halsey—Jos. E. Hurston
Operators

18-passenger Studebaker Coaches

—Between—

FLORENCE, SHEFFIELD,
TUSCUMBIA AND DECATUR
via COURTLAND

WEST BOUND [A.M.] [P.M.]
LEAVE DECATUR 9:30 3:20
Leave Courtland 10:25 4:15
Arrive Tuscaloosa 11:50 5:40
Arrive Sheffield Noon 5:50
ARRIVE FLORENCE 12:20 6:10

* "Pan-American" (from Birmingham) going North arrives Decatur 9:29 a.m. H. & H. Bus leaves for Florence immediately after.

* L. & N. No. 2 (from Birmingham) going North arrives Decatur 3:08 p.m. H. & H. Bus leaves for Florence immediately after.

EAST BOUND [A.M.] [P.M.]
LEAVE FLORENCE 8:40 4:00
Leave Sheffield 9:00 4:20
Leave Tuscaloosa 9:15 4:35
Leave Courtland 10:40 6:00
ARRIVE DECATUR 11:35 6:55

* L. & N. No. 3 South leaves Decatur at 12:50 p.m., and arrives Birmingham 3:40 p.m. H. & H. Bus makes this connection.

* "Pan-American" South leaves Decatur at 8:03 p.m., and arrives Birmingham 10:20 p.m.

We Stop at All Leading Hotels
"Ride The Studebaker Bus"
Headquarters—Tuscaloosa, Ala.
Phone 814.

CONDENSED STATEMENT OF TENNESSEE VALLEY BANK

On Call From State Banking Department

April 6, 1925.

RESOURCES:

	LIABILITIES:
Loans and Stocks and bonds	$5,105,104.67
Overdrafts	216,620.00
Banking Houses (15)	5,016.79
Furn. and Fixtures (16)	106,250.00
Other Real State	47,500.00
Cash and due from Banks	7,700.00
	868,765.75
	$6,356,957.21

WHAT YOU EAT

determines what you are. Keep healthy by keeping your food in a healthful state with

PURE ICE

Decatur Ice and Coal Co.
Phone Decatur 39

SPIRIT OF SERVICE LEADS NEGROES TO START CHURCH

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn.—About one year ago two negroes, one a cook and the other a waiter, both old and honored employees of a railroad operating trains between Minneapolis and Chicago, sat down in the dining car for a chat between meals. Out of the conversation has grown a church project, described by E. H. Rasmussen, executive secretary, Minnesota Baptist Convention, as "a unique and most worthy movement."

The men are E. L. Fuller, pastor, and G. L. Jenkins, deacon, of St. Anthony's Baptist church, one of the youngest but one of the best patronized of the local negro churches. Fuller, to make the plan possible, sold his home in a good residence section of Minneapolis and bought a house in a less desirable location, part of which is being used as a church.

Fuller told Rasmussen that "it just happened that Jenkins and I had the same idea at the same time, to get into something to help out our people." Fuller, a native of Iowa, said in his travels he had noticed that the members of his race who left the south to settle elsewhere, "seemed to lack appreciation of what the white man is doing for them."

The main object of the project is not so much to cater to those who already have religion and appreciate their surroundings, as it is to guide the newcomers from the south to adjust themselves to their northern abodes.

Common Malady Is Dangerous To Expectant Mothers

More Than Twenty Thousand
Expectant Mothers Pay With Their Lives Every Year For Neglect of Serious Condition

Many of those women who made the supreme sacrifice paid with their lives for their error in trying to perform the miracle of bringing a new life into the world without preparing their organs for the task in advance. Nine out of ten such women suffer from some form of so-called "female trouble," such as headaches, backache, pains in the sides, cramping, nausea, swelling of the joints during pregnancy, irregularity, nervousness, dizziness and that awful feeling of apprehension and depression so common among women and girls nowadays, and the cause of 90 per cent of these distressing ailments has now been definitely proven to be the terrible and unseen enemy—catarrh of the female generative organs.

"It is its proven reliability to overcome and stamp out catarrh of the generative organs which is responsible for the wonderful success St. Joseph's G. F. P. is now enjoying in relieving thousands of weak, thin and undernourished women of their suffering and pain and restoring them to health and happiness, with plenty of energy, vitality and buoyancy," says the representative of the discoverers of this phenomenal medicine.

Thousands of expectant mothers are now getting themselves in readiness for this great event in their lives through the consistent use of this marvelous medicine, which not only relieves them of the suffering and pain caused by catarrh but strengthens and invigorates their system builds up real, solid flesh, tissue and muscle and stimulates the healthy regular functioning of their bodily organs thus preparing them and helping to make childbirth the easy dream nature intends it to be.

Women Now Depend on
St. Joseph's
G.F.P.
To Restore Their Vitality

AMUSEMENTS

A prediction of a "feast of fashions for milady" comes with the announcement of "Sing-e Wives" the First National Production co-featuring Corinne Griffith and Milton Sills "Princess" theater today.

In this production Corinne Griffith is said to wear a most beautiful array of gowns, running the gamut of the styles from evening gowns to wedding dresses. Many predict that a new mode will be established following the first glimpse of an unusual dinner gown that she wears in part of the picture. This particular gown is a velvet trimmed in pearls and lace with a hoop-skirt effect trailing on the floor on either side, the underskirt clinging to the body and being visible between the two trains.

Corinne Griffith plays the role of Betty Jordan, a "single wife," a name coined to designate wives who have been neglected by their husbands and who have wandered from their hearths. The picture, from an original screen story by Earl Hudson is declared to strike a new note in the narration of domestic problems, dealing with a double triangle—that of a married daughter and her mother.

The main object of the project is not so much to cater to those who already have religion and appreciate their surroundings, as it is to guide the newcomers from the south to adjust themselves to their northern abodes.

Milton Sills plays the husband, who, though he loves his wife dearly, becomes engrossed in his business and practical problems to such an extent that he fails to continue his courtship tactics, thus wounding the pride of his wife and allowing her to respond to the attentions of another man.

"The other man" is played by Lou Pellegrin, famous as one of the screen's great lovers. Betty's mother is enacted by Kathryn Williams, whose affair with Franklyn Dexter Henry B. Walthall) furnishes one of the high lights of "Single Wives."

The balance of the cast includes such prominent names as Phyllis Haver, Phillips, Smalley Jere Austin and John Patrick. Thelma Morgan Converse, well known society girl and twin sister of Mrs. Reggi Vanderbilt, also has an attractive role. The picture was directed by George Archainbaud under the supervision of Earl Hudson.

NAVAL AIR SERVICE SEES NO NEED FOR SPECIAL AMBULANCE PLANES

WASHINGTON.—The big scouting planes that do duty with the fleets are ample to take care of aerial medical needs afloat, ranking officers in the navy's bureau of medicine and surgery believe. Consequently the naval air service does not plan the use of ambulance planes, which are contemplated by medical officers of the army air service.

The naval air service, it is pointed out, is sufficiently prepared for present requirements and needs no special equipment.

ANCIENT UNDERGROUND GALLERIES REVEALED WHEN STREET CAVES IN

GAETA—A series of subterranean galleries, believed to have formed part of the ancient defense works of his seaport—known as the Gibraltar of Italy—was revealed recently when the pavement caved in.

The extent of the discovery has not been determined, but judging from what experts were able to see from the surface the ancient masonry uncovered dates back several centuries because many

now standing in themselves

Makes 5c Cigars jealous and ten centers respectful

Putting a tip on a cigar is an expensive job. But you can't SMOKE the tip.

We leave the tip off and give you the saving. Real perfecto quality in tobacco and workmanship.

A well-made, smooth-smoking cigar. The triumph of big volume and elimination of frills.

4 Good Cigars
[tipless]
4 for 10¢

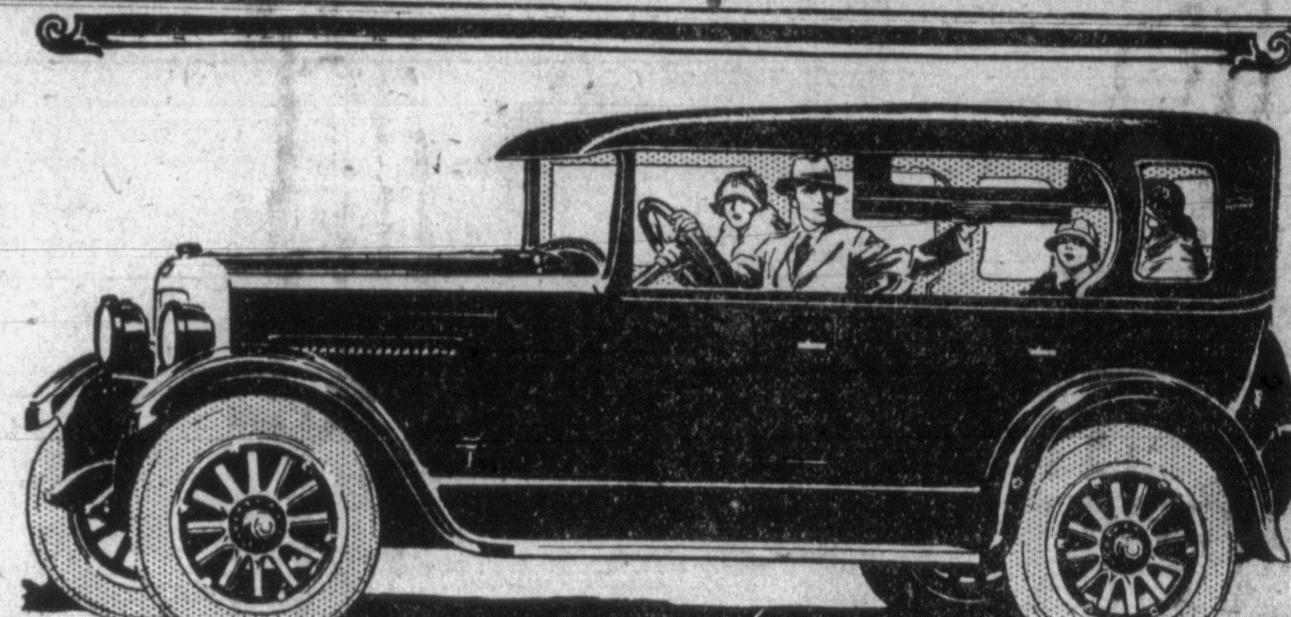

NATIONAL BANK
FOR SAVINGS
FACTORY
WORKER

or farmer, business woman or housewife—you will find a checking account with this conveniently located bank a valuable asset.

It will enable you to keep an accurate record of all expenditures, a big step towards economy, and you will be identified with the sound policies and business methods which this institution has followed since its establishment, twenty years ago. Small as well as large accounts are welcomed.

The Central
National Bank
Albany, Ala.

MEMBER
FEDERAL RESERVE
SYSTEM

— plus one advantage no other open car can offer

HERE is a sturdy, low-priced car of the very finest quality — the new Studebaker Standard Six Duplex-Phaeton.

It is the most powerful car of its size and weight, with every proved advantage that a high-grade open car can offer — rugged dependability, brilliant performance, outstanding comfort.

In addition, it has one great advantage no other open car provides — Duplex roller side enclosures that give enclosed-car protection in stormy weather. You make the change in 30 seconds—without leaving the seat.

Built complete by Studebaker—both body and chassis in great manufacturing plants where the overhead is shared by three different models. Thus only "one manufacturing profit" is included in the low purchase price.

Come in and inspect this new-type car, see this exclusive Duplex convenience—learn the value Studebaker offers before you buy.

North Alabama Auto & Accessory Co.
716 Bank St.

Phone Decatur 314

STUDEBAKER
Standard Six Duplex-Phaeton